TGIF Gremolata Family Members!

It has been a busy week for us and we are looking forward to the weekend. There are some great things happening in and around the city this weekend for lovers of good food and drink. As we do every Friday, here are some must-attend activities for all you foodies.

First off is Night it Up, an after dark food festival starting tonight and running through the weekend. The event is designed to recreate the famous late-night markets of Asia with booths and performances catering to all senses. Various vendors will be sharing exotic delicacies along with home grown performing spectacles, merchandise booths selling novelty items and the traditional game booths. The event takes place at Metro Square in Markham and admission is free.

If you are looking for a day trip to farm country, there are two great guided escapes planned for this Saturday. First is the ChowBella Gourmet Trek to Stratford. The bus tour will take guests to the centre of the picturesque and historic town of Stratford. You will embark on a behind-the-scenes tour of the Stratford Festival's Warehouse, the third-largest costume warehouse in North America, followed by lunch made with local, seasonal ingredients and prepared by one of Stratford's many celebrated chefs. The afternoon will be spent in the lush countryside of Perth County, visiting farms with Food Network's Manic Organic, Antony John. To learn more, simply Click Here.

Next, Slow Food Toronto is offering a guided bus getaway in support of The Stop Community Food Centre. The tour will take guests to The New Farm, a family-run organic farm that produces vibrant heirloom vegetables and the neighboring Metheral Farms, where they have been raising grass-fed Lamb for over 100 years. The day will end with a convivial farm fresh meal in the country with fresh produce from The New Farm, delicious local lamb sausages from Metheral Farm, fresh berries from Barrie Hill Farms and premium lager from Creemore Springs. Finally, Alan McGinty is back again this week with his part-deux of a report on the Cellared in Canada debate. This week Alan reveals some stats from other markets and some options for wine lovers in Ontario. Click Here to read his report.

And so, with Alan's second report, we once again see that price and consumer demand is a major issue when it comes to CIC. So, we wanted to put the debate into the hands of Gremolata family members with our DISCUSSION TOPIC OF THE DAY. We want to know how price impacts your purchase when it comes to wine. Would a lower price persuade you to drink more Ontario wine? Share your thoughts and start a discussion!

Have a great weekend folks!
