

Sweet Nothing

Anti-DIY

FRIDAY, OCT 17, 2008

From mix tapes to puffy-paint-decorated T-shirts, we've always loved being able to customize.

Thankfully our tastes have matured and the next time we're in a do-it-ourselves mood we'll be turning instead to the pros of two new Toronto-based services, ChowBella Culinary Concierge and Vive La Mode (and putting down the Bedazzler).

We'll head to ChowBella for our customized-foodie fix. We're signing up for anything from an individualized Culinary Travel Itinerary ($175 and up) for a food- or wine-focused trip, to having our fridge professionally stocked with our very own Personal Gourmet Shopper ($50/hour).

And when it comes time to taking off on that one-of-a-kind gastronomic getaway (or using our newly stocked fridge for our next dinner party), we'll be leaning on Vive La Mode and their Fashion and Shopping Tours ($350/four hours) to be sure we're dressed appropriately. From searching for the perfect cocktail dress with the Girls Night Out experience, or just looking for Key Pieces to round out our weekend-getaway wardrobe, we'll have everything (fashionably) covered.

Now if only they could do something with our old NKOTB collages...

ChowBella Culinary Concierge

www.chowbellaconcierge.com

647-403-8030

Vive La Mode

www.vivelamodeto.com

647-302-1398

If you thought that was sweet, we think you'll also enjoy:

- Denim Diva
- Chezvous Dining

Bringing Sexy Back

MANGO SHIVA

FRIDAY, OCT 17, 2008

Calgary

Brothers Kam and Neil Dhillon have opened a new incarnation of their popular eatery on Stephen Avenue.

Make Me Up

MIKAOLIVIA

FRIDAY, OCT 17, 2008

Vancouver

Makeup artists Karin Mika Shoji and Oribu Olivia Yokota offer beauty and makeup lessons at MikaOlivia.

Spruced Up For Spring

MONTREAL FASHION WEEK

FRIDAY, OCT 17, 2008

Montreal

The temperatures may be dropping outside, but Spring was in the air at Montreal Fashion Week.

A Make Me Pretty Mantra

SPHATIKA

WEDNESDAY, OCT 15, 2008

National

Sphatika: The Sanskrit word for crystal.

ROGERS digital media publishing

Sweetspot.ca is a Trademark of Sweetspot.ca Inc. | Managed by Trioro